Note to broadcasters

Upcoming Call for Inputs – Broadcasting Code Guidance

The Ofcom Broadcasting Code contains the rules which broadcast television and radio licensees must follow when complying their programmes. Ofcom also makes available Guidance to assist broadcasters in interpreting and applying the Code. We are conducting a review of this guidance, and this summer we plan to issue a Call for Inputs, as we are keen to hear from broadcasters on how we could update and improve the guidance. Further details will be flagged in the Bulletin and through our Broadcasting email updates.

We plan to publish our refreshed guidance in the first half of 2023.

If you have any initial thoughts at this stage or any queries, please contact us via codeguidance@ofcom.org.uk

If you want to sign up for Ofcom’s Broadcasting email updates, you can do so using this form and by selecting ‘yes’ on the Broadcasting option.
