Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request concerning business radio licence holders. Your request was received on 2 October 2023 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the FOI Act').

Your request

"What information is published or available on request about holders of the following licences?"

Business Radio (Simple UK) Licence

Business Radio (Simple Site) Licence

Business Radio (Suppliers Light) Licence

Is this different when the holder is a private individual, a legal body such as company or charity or any other organisation?"

Our response

We do not routinely publish information on these licences. However, you can find some data on Open data. It is listed under the spectrum Wireless Telegraphy Register section.

Please select Spectrum Open Data and then scroll down to Wireless Telegraphy Register. For convenience, the links to the relevant information are highlighted on the page below. The licence number, licensee name, licence type, status, licence issue data and location (where appropriate) are shown.

The information is the same regardless of the licensee type.

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
