Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning Wireless Telegraphy, enforcement and prosecution.

We received this request on 26 November 2024 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request & our response

(1) Between 1st January 2022 and 30th September 2024 how many Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006 prosecutions did Ofcom undertake via the courts?

Two.

(2) Between 1st January 2022 and 30th September 2024 how many enforcement actions were undertaken specifically using The Wireless Telegraphy (Control of Interference from Apparatus) Regulations 2016

We have not issued any notices under section 55 Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006 in respect of The Wireless Telegraphy (Control of Interference from Apparatus) Regulations 2016 in the specified period. Our engineers do consider issuing these notices but will only do so when it is proportionate to do so. For more information about our approach to compliance please refer to our website and click on ‘investigations’.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
