

I work as an Audio Describer, but also use subtitles when watching some programmes on T.V. It is quite frustrating when I need to watch programmes on Catch Up and these services are not available.

I feel most strongly that visually impaired and people with hearing impairments are being disadvantaged which is not in line with the Disability Discrimination Act.