

I have recently been upgraded to fibre - which I am delighted about.
However my phone has been switched to digital. I do have concerns as during Storm Arwen I had no power for 6 days and after initial problems with the phone relied on my landline for communication.
This would no longer be possible.

Kind regards

Lynda Bain