I have recently learnt as a member of VLV (Voice of the Listener Viewer) that Ofcom is running a consultation on new quotas for radio comedy and drama. Whilst the implication may not be to reduce the amount that these quotas have operated it is rather worrying that this may be so.

I am a long term listener of the excellent drama broadcast on Radios 3 and 4. The originality and depth of so many of these productions have given me hours of great pleasure. The standard is as high as ever.
