| Question 1: Do you have any comments on the modifications we are proposing to make to General Conditions A1 (general network access and interconnection obligations) or B4 (access to numbers or services)? | Confidential? –N No comment |
| Question 2: Do you have any comments on the modification we are proposing to make to the Numbering Plan? | Confidential? – N No comment |
| Question 3: Do you consider that any other essential changes need to be made to the General Conditions or Numbering Plan as a result of the UK leaving the EU? Please note that only changes that are essential will be considered. Amendments to the General Conditions or Numbering Plan which amount to changes in scope or policy will be considered at a later date, if appropriate. | Confidential? – Yes for the highlighted part One of the consequences of UK leaving the EU is the loss of opportunity to compare UK with the rest of the EU. As the matter of fact, in UK, MNOs (Mobile Network Operators), [REDACTED] are imposing exclusivity clause with MVNOs (Mobile Virtual Network Operators). Following with the Brexit, we would suggest imposing to every MNO the obligation to notify Ofcom whenever they inserted such clause into their contracts with MVNOs. This notification will help to have an objective vision of contractual practices and keep a certain level of fairness regarding contractual negotiations. |
