Question 1: Please provide any views or comments on the issues raised in our call for evidence, and any other issues relating to the boundary between the Public Service and BBC Studios. We also invite views on whether Mediatique's report represents a reasonable basis for us to consider the market context for this review.chec	In your description of commercial BBC you clearly mention Britbox as being overseas (US and Canada). I think you should investigate why UK license fee payers need to pay a subscription fee to the BBC (Britbox) to view a specific program – in this case Spitting Image – even though we are watching this in the UK.
