

With reference to the new plans to rollout 6ghz, I would vote for it if you could guarantee that independent in depth research has been carried out and every aspect of harm to humans, beasts or the environment has been clinically researched and the data from these proves conclusively that 6g is absolutely safe to use and will indemnify any harm caused by this system of operation.

Yours Sincerely

Brian Howard D.O. (Retired)