

Your response

Question	Your response
Question 1: Do you agree that Ofcom should not impose any new coverage obligations on the national radio multiplex licensees as part of licence renewal or require a new technical plan?	We agree that Ofcom should not impose any new coverage obligations on the national radio multiplex licensees as part of licence renewal, nor require a new technical plan. To ensure that any build out plans are fair and efficient, and in the interest of service providers and listeners, we would urge Ofcom to introduce a requirement for the national radio multiplex licensees to consult with their service providers as to any build out plans that they might have, and for any plans to be actionable with the support of say 75% of service providers.
Question 2: Do you agree that Ofcom should not impose any new obligations on the national radio multiplex licensees for promoting the DAB digital radio platform as part of licence renewal?	We agree that Ofcom should not impose any new obligations on the national radio multiplex licensees for promoting the DAB digital radio platform as part of licence renewal.
Question 3: Do you agree with our preference not to set a PMR rate for the renewed period of the national radio multiplex licences?	We agree that Ofcom should not impose a PMR rate for the renewed period of the national radio multiplex licences. This would not be in the interest of services providers, and ultimately their listeners.