Your response

Question 1: Do you consider that the BBC's published proposals are clear in relation to their scale (both in terms of financial resource and in terms of reach and type of content) and the timescales for implementation? If not, please provide details of the areas where you feel more clarity is required.	Confidential? No. Scotlands contribution to the licence fee is less than 10% i.e. 2.6 million homes. They already have BBC1 Scotland, BBC 2 Scotland and BBC Alba it would be totally unfair to the rest of the UK to give them yet another channel for which I (In the Midlands) would be expected to pay for
Question 2: Did the BBC's consultation process provide a suitable opportunity for you to set out your views fully? If not, please provide details.	Confidential? – No Only heard about it through Scotland

Question 3: Because the BBC's proposal involves the introduction of a new public service channel, we do not consider that further analysis is required to determine materiality. If you disagree, please explain why you consider the BBC's published proposals are not material.	Confidential? –No Because the expenditure on and in Scotland has a direct financial cost to the other 92% of licence fee payers
Question 4: Please explain whether you consider Ofcom should undertake a BCA or a Shorter Assessment of the BBC's proposal.	Confidential? – N AS long as you like as the BBC wil roll over to the bullying Scots
Question 5: Do you agree with the BBC's assessment in its public interest test about the potential public value and/or market impact of the proposal? Please provide any additional information you may have to explain your view.	Confidential? – N No I would never agree with anything put forward by the BBC as along with politicians the y are inveterate liars. Just consider the pay issue and the expense issue. And the fact they only really appeal to the middle class but all have to pay with the licence fee to the rip-off by the pigs with their noses in the trough
Question 6: Does this proposal highlight any significant market impact concerns which might affect your products and services? Please provide any additional information you may have to explain how you consider the launch of a new BBC channel for Scotland could affect you if it goes ahead.	Confidential? – N Clearly it must have a negative effect because the BBC will have to find the money from the Licence fee or increase the licence fee or reduce expenditure elsewhere such as stop another channel. I repeat Scotlands contribution to the licence fee is less than 10% i.e. 2.6 million homes.

	They already have BBC1 Scotland, BBC 2 Scotland and BBC Alba it would be totally unfair to the rest of the UK to give them yet another channel for which I (In the Midlands) would be expected to pay for What's with the BBC Alba channel they have their own channel in this why do they need another one. The suggestion is shocking brought about the bragging, bullying, talentless Scots in there political party. END
