

CONSULTATION RESPONSE

NAME	Response to Proposal by Ofcom to grant powers under the Electronic Communication Code to Internetty Ltd
Timothy Stevens	I object to any relaxation of restrictions relating to the erection of communications equipment that transmits wireless/microwave radiation. These transmissions have been proven by many independent scientists to be harmful to health. I particularly object to the extension of powers that would allow an operator to carry out work on private land if agreement cannot be reached with the landowner.