

regarding consultation on Rsl short terms Radio service. I think Radio Ramadan should be continue in Bradford regardless of community Radio, because radio Ramadan have its own recognition and every year new applicant will cater of all sects in Islam. If one organisation giving the chance to run the Islamic service will make divisions in the community and Radio will be labelled part of the one sect of the the Muslim community. So there for the best Advice I will give ofcom to consider is to keep Radio Ramadan as it is and let the different sections of the Islamic community to participate and get fair chance to serve their community. hope my comments will be consider as a valuable information regarding Rsl in Bradford Yorkshire.

why there is no Radio station in Birmingham for Ramadan. I can understand that Unity is catering for the Muslim community but they running the station in one direction which is Wahabi school of thought. This can be confirmed by listening to their programming. There should be Ramadan broadcast every year so other school of thought get the fair opportunity to serve the community. as majority is Sunni school of thought in Birmingham.
