

Response to: Proposal to apply Code powers to the Hen Beudy Services Limited

Respondent: Name withheld

5G has not been safety tested and therefore the precautionary principle should apply. Carte blanche to override local objections to 5G masts and transmissions should not be given to the telecoms company