I would like to keep Xs Manchester in its current format

Manchester is famous for many things , 3 that are up near the top of the list are Football , music and rain , and we want a local station that showcases our music.

XS Manchester is the prefect showcase for music from Manchester that is known around the world whether in a live or recorded format . It also promotes independent acts from all over the world that otherwise would struggle for airplay on the larger network stations.

Local bands are forever in the debt to this station for helping launch their careers , 2 recent ones that spring to mind are Blossoms and Slow Readers Club

I think the current format serves the most people possible in their music listening within the Manchester area , and it doesn't seem to make commercial sense to get rid of this format for an afro Caribbean station
