Losing XS Manchester would be disastrous to the listeners in the Manchester area. No other station caters for our demographic so effectively, and XS Manchester, has in my opinion, created a community on air and around the city. They have brought along new bands and sounds, provided premium entertainment and helped to keep the unique sound of Manchester alive. As a media teacher in the area, it is obvious to me that young people no longer listen to the radio, therefore a station like Capital Xtra as suggested is unnecessary. Please save our sanity and save XS Manchester.
