Question 1: Respondents are invited to comment on whether they agree with Ofcom's preliminary view and to frame their views and responses with reference to, or in the context of, the statutory criteria in section 106(1A) of the Broadcast Act 1990 (as amended).

There are way too many "Corporate FM" stations with egotistical DJ's (who like the sound of their own voices) playing the same old music. Added to this, it's not like there's not enough "urban contemporary" crap out there!

If this change goes ahead, there will be nothing left in the area for people of my age, who just want to listen to music, which for the most part is actually written and performed by the actual artist. Listening to Chris Moyles & Johnny Vaughan on Radio X really isn't an option.

Please don't take XS Manchester away!
