Question 1: Respondents are invited to comment on whether they agree with Ofcom's preliminary view and to frame their views and responses with reference to, or in the context of, the statutory criteria in section 106(1A) of the Broadcast Act 1990 (as amended).

Quite frankly I am incredibly disappointed that this is taking place at all. Just when Manchester has a decent radio station playing the music I like with likeable people presenting. The comments that my radio needs will be met by Radio X are laughable. Within a month of this launching, their presenters had made it clear that their target audience was male. As a female, I will not be listening to Radio X. I refer you to the following newspaper article.

Just to make it clear, I 100% oppose this change.
