If you do not agree, please give reasons. I am a firm believer in local radio, one that supports the local area, its inhabitants and businesses. There are already enough regional and/or national radio stations. Local radio is able to provide a service which goes beyond playing music and relaying national news. Local radio provides people with a sense of community and connectivity which regional radio cannot replicate. The erosion of local facilities in general is a tragic state of affairs especially when the only real reason is cost cutting. We need to keep local radio , end of. Thank you.
