

Your response

Question	Your response
	Local Radio should be just that. Any attempt to merge stations under one controlling body is contrary to this. We listen to our local stations because their content is relevant to our daily lives. They live here with us and understand what is going on. Please do not ignore the importance of our local Spirit FM station by allowing this change to take place.