Question 1: Respondents are invited to comment on whether they agree with Ofcom's preliminary view and to frame their views and responses with reference to, or in the context of, the statutory criteria in section 106(1A) of the Broadcasting Act 1990 (as amended), and in particular statutory criterion (d).	Not confidential As a devout fan of urban music I am furious with the decision by Bauer to remove KISS from FM radio In Cambridge. There is already very limited choice for fans of EDM, and this will now be removed completely. Not only does this reduction in choice leave an entire genre of music unplayed, it leaves thousands of people unserved by radio in what is a diverse university city of all creeds and colours. If bauer are allowed to proceed, there is a severe reduction in listener choice but... more worryingly... there will be much less music of black origin being played on the radio. What other station is going to play grime, dubstep, and other urban artists? Not only does this move represent a reduction in choice, it represents a reduction in diversity. This is everything we should be fighting against.
