Question 1: Do you have any comments on the proposed changes to the template notice set out in Annex 1?	Confidential? – N <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally – in respect of ADR there is no explanation either provided or guidance signposted so a Site Provider can understand what it is, what the various procedures are and the differences between them. We would suggest that a separate guidance document is produced providing a clear overview of ADR. This will enable parties unfamiliar with ADR to make informed decisions and/or seek additional advice as required. • Interpretation – 6 – we would suggest that the Operator provides a plan identifying the land or target premises. To enable a clear understanding of the subject area. • Alternative Dispute Resolution – 13B. – the inclusion of a template Notice for a party wishing to engage in ADR would we believe be appropriate and useful. • Your Options – 14.c – There needs to be an explanation as to what the effect of the Site Provider serving a Notice wishing to engage in ADR has on the process and the 28 day time line.
