

Yes definitely - this is a local community radio station staffed by volunteers who serve and support the community. All musical tastes are catered for along with help to charities and businesses. This is a radio station which serves everyone in Chorley.