

In short absolutely yes. I have met volunteers from chorley FM numerous times at local business events. They are great people who do great work with organising local events ie chorley tweet up - and was highly impressed by their commitment to enhancing local events in Chorley and beyond. I agree the license should be granted to help extend this fabulous social enterprise