

Yes, it is a very important part of the community which should be allowed to serve everyone, no matter what age etc. Local community radio is key and should reach out to all areas of the community.