

Yes

Chorley FM provide a valuable service to the community of Chorley Borough not only in promoting and actively being involved in community events but also in the training and development of people in radio broadcasting and associated skills.