

YES

"Chorley FM has build a great local station for the WHOLE community and by changing it's key commitments can continue doing so. Community Radio evolves and develops with the local community and this is exactly what this community station has done. The local community and beyond identify with Chorley FM and it has great links with voluntary, statutory & charity organisations as well as the man/woman in the street. It is at the heart of the community and should remain there.