

Yes i agree Chorley Fm should be able to expand its listener base over the whole of the community and the wider the spectrum the better

I think Chorley FM is a valid and worthwhile station, and reach the community in general as well as a few niche areas, for instance the folk music show, there are not a lot of radio stations that play folk music and cater for those of us who enjoy it.