

Definitely

I wholeheartedly agree to the proposed changes for Chorley fm's target audience. It is popular and serves a much wider community than the narrow one they assumed they would target at first. They have taken notice of what the people in Chorley want and developed a greatly enhanced and broader listenership.