

YES

Chorley FM has created a great local station. It makes sense that a community radio should be allowed to continue to serve the community as a whole.