

Yes

Community radio should cover issues relating to the whole community. The change in licence should be approved without question.