Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No... Royal mail should only deliver to the address given, and not a third party. A neighbour may not be reliable in dealing with such mail delivery, and in some cases there could be friction between neighbours... which will cause no end of problems

Royal Mail have put their postal charges up dramatically, and still don't want to provide a delivery service they have been paid for. If this act is forced through, then customers must have the right to opt out, and not by using a sticker on the front door!

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
