

Additional comments:

This is very worrying and annoying!

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No! I live in a tower block, and am out all day at work. The only large items I have delivered are quite valuable, and they will be delivered to potential drug addicts and alcoholics. I already have mental health problems, and will probably not be able to collect fossils, as I wont have faith that these will be delivered - not to mention that a sticker on the door shows that you maybe out! My mail order days will be over - and given that I don't drive, I will be unable to continue my hobbies.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Potential burglaries and trespass, if people think you are out! There is also the risk that neighbours don't get on, and this may lead to items going AWOL.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

No, just reconsider for those in a less fortunate position than the 'favourable' comments you have received.
