

Additional comments:

If this goes ahead then it should be an opt into scheme with a nominated address for acceptance of post and not an opt out of scheme. if I am expecting delivery of an item that requires signature or is too bit for post box then I almost always have to travel to Northallerton to collect it - even though the postman has access through the gate he rarely comes to the house.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No - you pay for delivery to a specific person and address. I believe that this would mean that post will be lost and late. My property has no immediate neighbours - where would my post go to.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
