

Additional comments:

My primary issue is with regard to the opt out scenario where it will be my responsibility to display a sticker on my door to inform Royal Mail not to leave items with neighbours. It should be the responsibility of RM to listen to my wishes and act accordingly and once indicated in the negative not to action this. Besides I have a traditional door unsuited to such display

Question 1: Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

Not in the current form of proposal. They need to take cognisance of addressees wishes without the random display of stickers on doors etc.

Question 2: Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:Question 3: Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval: