

Additional comments:

I was only notified about this scheme by a leaflet from Royal Mail AFTER the last response date set by OFCOM. How on earth can this be an open and fair consultation?

I can only hope that late submissions, such as this will still be taken into account.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

I do not agree to the Royal Mail proposal.

My neighbours have an anti-harrassment order against them. The thought that they would get hold of my personal mail horrifies me.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Anyone wanting nothing to do with this scheme will have to deface their front door with a notice to opt-out. Why should people have to do this? The scheme, if approved, should be an opt-in scheme for people who actually choose to do this.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

No.
