

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No, I do not agree. If the Royal Mail were to deliver my mail to whatever strangers happen to live nearby, then I would be afraid that MY MAIL MIGHT BE OPENED, OR STOLEN, OR DAMAGED OR DESTROYED. And I would never know.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Perhaps. Have you considered whether delivering a person's mail to some anonymous stranger might VIOLATE THE RIGHT TO A PRIVATE FAMILY LIFE, as enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights?

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
