

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. I live in a busy city and don't know my neighbours very well. I have a lot of parcels delivered and I do not want to be a nuisance to those living near to me. I am perfectly happy with the current arrangements and do not mind going to the sorting office to collect parcels.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

I do not wish to have a sticker on my front door. As well as being unsightly it will potentially sour relations with neighbours should they happen to call at the door as it implies "I do not trust my neighbours". I feel the scheme should be opt in rather than opt out.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
