

Additional comments:

The scheme is back to front in that the people who do not want to be included in the scheme are expected to register and display stickers and it should be the other way around.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. - It should be a general rule, (for all optional services), that everyone is automatically opted out unless they choose to opt in by registering to opt in. - The scheme is back to front in that it is the people who do not want to be included in the scheme who are expected to register and display stickers and it should be the other way around.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

It should only affect those who want it and the default should be that everyone is automatically opted out unless they actively choose to join the scheme.
