

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. It's a disgraceful idea.

It is MY property and should only be delivered to me. That used to be the Law!

What if they aren't in when I go to collect it - why should they be disturbed on my behalf?

What if they say it wasn't left with them?

Anyway, I do not want my property in someone else's house.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

It would be OK to ask for a safe place to leave items or give a designated neighbour, but not just anyone; I hardly know anyone round here 0-how embarrassing and what if they refuse to give me my parcel or say it wasn't left there? I would rather pick up items at the Delivery Office or arrange redelivery. Some of my neighbours work shifts - it is not acceptable for them to be woken to take in a parcel of mine, also

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
