

Additional comments:

My post is personal to me and i strongly feel that Royal Mail should aim to deliver my mail at a time when i am most likely to be in - ie evenings. The current delivery service offered is dismal and the hours the depot opens for collections is still geared towards the hours staff wish to work as opposed to what the customer's needs are. I DONOT want my mail delivered to my neighbours and donot wish to have a sticker displayed either. Also how long will the sticker last in british weather and will it peel the paint on my door? Why have i only just heard about this proposal, is it so that I don't have time to object?

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No absolutely not. My mail is extremely private and personal to me. My family shop online regularly and have approx 3 parcels a week - I donot wish my neighbours to be troubled with taking these. I also sonot wish to display an unsightly sticker. I think the scheme should be changed so people have to 'opt in' and confirm they want their mail left with neighbours and not the other way round.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:*Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
