

Additional comments:

I do not agree with this approach. Personal mail and correspondence is personal and should not be left with a neighbour. It is an infringement of my rights.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No - mail addressed to me should be delivered to me. It breaches confidentiality delivering it elsewhere. The postal service is bad enough at the moment as I regularly get mail for a neighbour and my mail has been delivered to the wrong address on many occasions. I report this to the manager of the local sorting office.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
