

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No, I do not agree that approval should be granted at least not as an opt out scheme. I do not disagree with the proposal in principle however I do not want to have to opt out and I certainly do not want to have a sticker on my letter box that says I'm opting out. It should be an opt in scheme and in that way it allows people that know and trust their neighbours to make use of this delivery scheme.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
