

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. i do not pay a premium price for a parcel or mail to be delivered elsewhere. I live in a block of flats with people i dont know and some unsavoury characters. As much as royal mail might pay me a book of 6 stamps in compensation for lost mail this does not cover the loss at all. i want MY mail to MY address and any mail i sent to delivered to person it is intended for.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

there is no law to say that a neighbour HAS to hadn mail over. Too easy to deny knowledge and blame postman for putting wrong door number on form. (which has happened!)

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
