

Additional comments:

Postmen and women periodically don't do their job as they should, this is simply a licence for Royal Mail to avoid the requirement to ensure that the job is done correctly.

Who exactly is my neighbour?

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No.

if I send or recieve mail I expect it to be delivered to the recipient and no-one else.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

No other carrier has ever left my parcels with a neighbour. If Royal Mail took this cavalier step I would no longer use Royal Mail for parcels unless forced to do so by their monopolistic position.

My letter box is 200 yards from my home and open to abuse. I don't want to try to keep a sticker on it.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval
