

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No - this is all about cost cutting. In London people don't even know their neighbours as such giving your post to strangers is not a good idea.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Who takes on responsibility if the post is lost after being taken in by the neighbour - Royal Mail?

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

It should be rejected.
