

Additional comments:

It should be an opt in rather than opt out policy. It is an intrusion of privacy. I would not wish neighbours to know when and what I receive in terms of parcels. The Post Office charges enough already. This is passing the buck.

Question 1: Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No

Question 2: Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3: Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
