

Additional comments:

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

NO

Buying a stamp is a contract that places an obligation on the Royal Mail to deliver the item to the addressee.

Why is it necessary for those NOT wanting to participate to OPT OUT?

Surely for those who want it, they should be asked to OPT IN Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

I do not agree with a so called survey when we have no idea of the size of the sample and the area in which it was conducted.

ANYTHING can be proved any way it is required.

THIS IS A STEP TOO FAR

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

I will object most strongly to my mail being left with some one else without my express permission. I do not propose to give it, Neither will I accept mail for any one else. I do not accept the responsibility/liability for possible disputes concerning undelivered mail.