Question 1: To what extent do you consider that DTT, DSat, cable and IPTV are in competition with one another for subscribers of pay TV services ? either at present or in the future?:

i think the competition will get more and more in the future but DTT at the moment is the poor relation, and used by people like myself who cant get sky or cable.

Question 2: To what extent do you consider the Proposal is likely to deliver benefits to the consumer?:

It will benefit people with only DTT

Question 3: To what extent do you consider that there is scope for sustainable competition in pay TV on the DTT platform and, more broadly, across all pay TV platforms?:

I think there is still room for competition in all areas.

Question 4: What are likely to be the key aspects of competition between providers of retail pay TV services on the DTT platform? E.g. what is the role of premium sports and movies content?:

I think DTT at the moment is desperate for a good sports channel and good quality general entertainment channel.

Question 5: Do you consider that if Sky were to become the only provider of pay TV on the DTT platform it would be likely to have a significant detrimental effect on competition in the long term? How might this affect the development of other platforms for the delivery of pay TV services?:

I think sky would be a good service, but I do think in time other services should be offered the chance to launch competitive packages.

Question 6: To what extent, if at all, do you consider that the Proposal would be likely to lead to any of the public policy concerns outlined at Section 4?:

Question 7: Specifically, to what extent do you consider that the Proposal would be likely to lead to consumer confusion?:

little confusion.

Question 8: To what extent do you consider that it is beneficial for consumers to be able to obtain Sky and existing DTT pay TV content without having to purchase separate STBs?:

I think that if the service would be available through the STB's that are already on the market, then it would be a major benefit.

Question 9: Do you consider that the Proposal might lead to any additional public policy concerns:

no

Question 10: If Sky becoming the only provider of pay TV services on the DTT platform were likely to have a significant detrimental effect on competition, do you consider that it is possible to address this through a set of additional conditions and/or directions? If so, what form should those conditions/directions take?:
